

Cadastral and Land Registration in Europe 2012

Vision Statement

Vision Statement

- Why a vision statement?
- Process
- Content
- Further procedure

Why a vision statement?

- Several umbrella organisations in the field of Cadastre and Land Registry: Eurogeographics, PCC, ELRA
- Growing importance of Europe
- Why are we in this together?
- Build on the work done by other international organisations

Process

- Several meetings in past year C&LR Expert group, GA
- Main points of discussion:
 - Real estate market, market for land information or SDI?
 - Target groups with different needs
 - Co-operation or consolidation?
 - Level of ambition

Content (1)

Mission:

- “Providing state of the art services to the real property market and market for land information integrated within e-government and co-operating in building the National and European spatial data infrastructures”
 - state of the art services
 - real propert market and market for land information
 - legal and non-legal real estate information
 - integrated within e-government
 - Cooperating in building the (N)(E)SDI

Content (2)

- Providing state of the art services
- Cooperating in building the NSDI and ESDI
- Supporting European policies
- Building an efficient and effective organisation
- Support developing countries and transition economies

Further procedure

- Agreement Eurogeographics-PCC
- Agreement ELRA
- Contact with wider group of stakeholders (WPLA, FIG, CLGE, GE)
- Plan for further communication